

Trade Compliance Policy Statement

Level33 Pte Ltd is committed to comply with Singapore Customs regulations and requirements to operate a Microbrewery in accordance with Singapore regulations and laws.

Accountability for duty suspended beer/stouts stored in the microbrewery is a key element in our responsibility as licensee and security measures are in place to safeguard the designated storage areas.

SOP's are implemented to ensure the accuracy of records, permit declaration, payment of duties and taxes and movement of goods. Applying for authorizations and permits from Singapore Customs whenever necessary.

Confidential information is safeguarded and IT security is in place for that scope.

Periodic stocktakes, internal audits and keeping of updated stock records serve transparency within the organization.

Business Continuity Plan and Emergency Plan are periodically reviewed to provide the business with the necessary stability. Our staff is provided with the necessary training to response to emergency situation and to comply with all MOH regulations.

Level33 is committed to cooperate with Singapore Customs to facilitate any necessary information upon request.

Gabriel Garcia
Brewmaster

Reviewed on	August 2021
Next revision	2022	